

Craftcloud - All3DP GmbH Modern Slavery Statement

This statement is made by All3DP GmbH and company brand Craftcloud pursuant to Section 54 of the UK Modern Slavery Act (MSA) 2015 and covers the financial year ending December 31, 2024. It sets out the steps All3DP GmbH is taking to reduce the risk of slavery and human trafficking in its business and supply chain network.

Company Overview

All3DP GmbH and company brand Craftcloud, established in 2014 and headquartered in Munich, Germany, operate a global manufacturing network of suppliers, offering custom-made parts from various manufacturing technologies and materials. As a company committed to expanding the opportunities to order custom-made parts for every use case. We provide our customers with easy access to a growing network of global manufacturing services. With this network, Craftcloud understands the responsibility of carefully selecting every manufacturing supplier within our network and ensuring ethical business practices throughout every part of the supply chain.

With more than 200 manufacturing suppliers, 120 different materials, and 20 manufacturing technologies, Craftcloud offers customers of any background the possibility of having parts produced and delivered globally.

As we expand and develop our business, our dedication to maintaining ethical business practices throughout our supplier network will only strengthen. This commitment is central to All3DP GmbH and Craftcloud's identity—an organization devoted to respecting human rights and tirelessly working towards a more just and ethical world.

General Statement

All3DP GmbH places great importance on respecting and promoting human rights and fundamental freedoms. This policy reflects our commitment to ensure, to the best of our ability, that there is no modern slavery in any part of our business operations. We are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all business dealings and relationships and, where possible, to ensuring modern slavery is not taking place in our own business or supply chain.

We adhere to all applicable laws and regulations aimed at preventing forced labor, human trafficking, and exploitation. Our commitment to ethical business practices is unwavering, and we strive to create a transparent, fair, and safe environment for all stakeholders and business partners.

Supply Chain Details

Craftcloud operates as a global marketplace, connecting customers with a network of manufacturing partners. Our supply chain includes a diverse range of suppliers, from large-scale manufacturing companies to small, specialized producers. We understand that the complexity of our supply chain requires diligent oversight to ensure ethical practices are maintained at every level. Our supplier network is a critical component of our business operations, and we carefully evaluate every supplier onboarded to the Craftcloud manufacturing platform.

We work with suppliers from 70 different countries across five continents. To maintain the integrity of our supplier network, we operate a strict manufacturer assessment process.

- Assessment of Ethical Standards: Ensuring that suppliers meet our stringent criteria for business practices and human rights.
- Regular Audits and Reviews: Conducting periodic assessments to ensure ongoing compliance with our business practices and obligations.
- Open Communication: Maintaining clear and regular communication with suppliers about our expectations and their responsibilities under our agreements.
- Due Diligence: We conduct rigorous due diligence processes to assess and monitor the risk of modern slavery within our supply chain. This includes regular audits, supplier assessments, and continuous engagement with our partners to ensure adherence to our ethical standards.
- Reporting Mechanisms: We have established clear reporting mechanisms for employees, suppliers, and other stakeholders to report any suspicions or incidents of modern slavery. All reports are taken seriously and investigated promptly, with appropriate actions taken to address any issues identified.

Risk Assessment and Management

We continuously assess the risk of modern slavery within our supply chain through a structured risk management process. This involves:

- Identifying High-risk Areas: We are mapping our supply chain to identify regions and sectors at higher risk of modern slavery.
- Engaging with Stakeholders: Collaborating with stakeholders to stay informed about emerging risks and best practices in combating modern slavery.
- Continuous Improvement: Regularly reviewing and updating our policies and procedures to strengthen our approach to preventing modern slavery.

Conclusion

Craftcloud remains resolute in our commitment to eradicating modern slavery from our operations and supply chain. We recognize that this is an ongoing effort that requires vigilance, collaboration, and continuous improvement. By upholding the highest ethical standards, we aim to contribute to a world where all individuals are treated with dignity and respect.

For any inquiries or further information regarding this statement, please contact us at support@craftcloud3d.com.

Endorsement of this statement

The management team of All3DP GmbH and Craftcloud recognizes the importance of the matters considered in this Statement and the Modern Slavery Act. All3DP GmbH and Craftcloud will continue to take all measures necessary to ensure that slavery and human trafficking have no place in our business operations, and we welcome this opportunity to restate our commitment to ethical and responsible practices in all parts of our company and business units.

All3DP GmbH . Ridlerstrasse 31a . 80339 Munich . Germany

Approved by:

Mathias Plica, CEO
All3DP GmbH / Craftcloud